Disclaimer: This book reflects the author's sole opinion, based on his research, knowledge, and understanding.

Scripture References: All references to Scripture in this book are taken from the New King James Version (NKJV) unless otherwise indicated by a three- to nine-character translation code on the list of translations.

Author's Comments in [[text]] or [text] Brackets: The Amplified Bible uses parentheses around some (text) and brackets around other [text] to enhance Scripture understanding. If you see double brackets around [[text]] within any Scripture, or [text] outside of Scripture, it indicates an author's comment or explanation from his perspective. Scriptures may also follow the following capitalization protocol to clarify the identities of Jesus and God (or YAHWEH). This book updates the author's "Book of Edward, Chapter 21," originally published as an 8.5x11 textbook in 2005.

Capitalization Protocol

On all Bible citations, regardless of the translation used and where the context clearly points to God ALMIGHTY or to Jesus Christ, this book distinguishes between the two. This is done by using either small-cap characters or lowercase characters.

For God Almighty, a small capitalized style protocol is followed and reflected in the format: CREATOR, FATHER, ALMIGHTY, GIVER, HE, HIS, HIM, HIMSELF, YOU, YOUR, ME, MINE, MOST HIGH, MY, MYSELF, LORD AND SAVIOR, ETC.

For Jesus Christ, a lowercase protocol is used except for Lord and Son. Hence, when these pronouns are used for Jesus, they show up as: he, his, him, himself, you, your, me, my, myself, savior, Lord, or Son.

This has generally been followed throughout the book but is not the case with every cited verse. It is used for those verses in which the context cannot be easily disputed, or in the case of citing, a quality or attribute which belongs solely to God.

For those interested in the original translation capitalization, the author refers them to the actual Bible version used for the cited text. A list of Bible translations is shown on the next page. In other cases, capital letters used within the mentioned sentence structure were also changed on common words for ease of reading or modern grammar. In other cases, the capitalized letters were left as shown in the original translation. Hence the original Bible phrase "; Because" might appear as "; because." In all instances, the author maintains complete integrity of translation, and the writings herein can be traced back to the original Bibles to confirm the accuracy of presentation. While not perfect, the capitalization protocol is reasonably consistent and enhances the reading and value of the author's writings.

CHAPTER THREE

Universalism & Moral Relativism

Is Hitler Really In Heaven?

Walsch writes that God says: "I do not love 'good' more than I love 'bad.' Hitler went to Heaven. When you can understand this [fact], you will understand God. ¹ [ME]."

In Walsch's mind, there is no "good" or "evil," and God doesn't prefer one over the other. Where did such a debased spiritual idea originate? From orthodox trinitarian theology, that's where. It is the genesis that now intellectually excuses all evil as long as you mouth Jesus as your savior. If there is one difference between Walsch's New Age dogma and orthodox trinitarian Christianity, I suspect it is the nuance in orthodox doctrine that a Christian must be able to "mouth" Jesus. I don't think Walsch cares, and his writings indicate it is irrelevant.

Let's look at the spiritual psychobabble contained in Book One of Walsch's three-volume book set.

"Feelings are the language of the soul." ²

Comment: If this were true, it would negate the need for wisdom and knowledge of God since you simply listen to your feelings. Feelings are a part of our human makeup, but they do not negate the need for reason! I hope this fact is now very clear in your mind from prior chapters.

"The Bible is not an authoritative source of knowledge of God." ³

Comment: In the first eight pages of his book, Walsch asserts that God tells us to just go with our feelings and to ignore the Bible as a moral guide for our actions. If it feels good, do it! Then ...

"There is no Hell." ⁴

"There is no evil." ⁵

"You have no obligations to anyone in this life." ⁶

"Nothing [you can do] is offensive to God." ⁷

"Your earthly actions are irrelevant to Heaven." ⁸

"Your job on the planet is to decide and experience who you are." ⁹

"[Walsch says he] lived hundreds of lives" via reincarnation." ¹⁰

I call Walsch's works spiritual psychobabble for a few reasons. The most obvious reason is that he dismisses the Bible as an authoritative basis for knowing God. Yet throughout his writings, he likes to quote the Bible to reinforce or back up his current statement. ¹¹ Walsch plays on both sides of the spiritual fence and walks a wide path in his writings.

It is the broad way that Jesus says leads to our destruction. Note that the implication in Matthew 7:13 is that people might get temporarily into Heaven by entering through the wide gate. The path is the one leading to Hell, and they don't get to stay. Verily I say unto you that everyone will know whether the choice they've made is right or wrong and will suffer the eternal consequences of their individual spiritual choice.

Jesus said, "Enter by the narrow gate [[of God's righteousness]]; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it." Matthew 7:13

Walsch, as an author, also speaks against his prior writings in what can only be termed "double-speak." You cannot claim both positions when they are polar opposites from a moral or intellectual perspective. I.E., the technique of first dismissing the Bible as lacking any authority for God and then using it to support spiritual arguments is just plain intellectual dishonesty. Yet isn't this what most spiritually debased people want to do? They want to "feel good" spiritually but don't want to obey a God with an actual set of mores that judge our earthly behavior.

"We are self-created" on our own efforts v. being Spirit-led." ¹²

"[Walsch says] I've had dozens of New Age teachers." ¹³

"There is no right or wrong; everything is just relative." ¹⁴

"God is the God of Christianity." ¹⁵

Comment: Walsch writes in opposition to a prior statement of his that God is a God with no religions or religious affiliations. It is another example of his Orwellian double-speak.

"Obedience can never produce salvation." ¹⁶

Comment: The issue of obedience is a central theme throughout the Bible. Any claim that obedience doesn't matter runs counter to Jesus' teachings. Obedience is the real issue [concern] in all spiritual apostasy.

"There is no judgment in the afterlife." ¹⁷"Reincarnation" ¹⁸ is true--[second reference]."All illness is self-created." ¹⁹"Your body was designed to last forever." ²⁰

Comment: This is also double-speak. Are we designed by God, or did we evolve from sea creatures? Which is it? It can't be both.

"And in this holy instant came you, out of the sea." ²¹

"At the outset, the idea was for you wonderful souls to have a chance to know your Selves as Who You Really Are through experiences gained in the physical body, in the relative world--as I have explained repeatedly here. This was done through the slowing down of the unfathomable speed of all vibration (thought form) to produce matter--including the matter you call the physical body. Life evolved through a series of steps in the blink of an eye that you now call billions of years. And in this holy instant came you, out of the sea, the water of life, onto the land and into the form you now hold." ²²

"There is no male and female, there is no before and after, there is no fast and slow, here and there, up and down, left and right--and no right and wrong." ²³

"There is no devil." ²⁴

Okay, this is some interesting spiritual stuff. Let's put it all together in an easy-to-follow way. In "Conversations With God," Neale Donald Walsch teaches the following about God in Book 1.

1. Hitler is in Heaven.
2. There is no good or evil.
3. There is no right or wrong.
4. There is no devil.
5. There is no Hell.
6. Nothing is offensive to God.
7. The Bible is not God's authority.
8. There is no judgment in the afterlife.
9. Feelings are the language of the soul-- so go with them.
10. Your earthly actions, good or evil, are irrelevant to God.
11. Reincarnation is a reality for all of those who choose it.
12. Evolution out of the sea is how humans came into existence.
13. We have no earthly obligations except to ourselves.
14. All illness is self-created.
15. Our duty is to decide and experience who we are--what we want.
16. Everything is relative on this earth-- there are no moral standards.
17. Obedience is not a part of salvation.

If everything that Neale Donald Walsch teaches is true, why should anyone be concerned about our earthly behavior? In his mind, we live in a self-actuated relative world, and our only duty is to ourselves to discover and be who we want to be--good or evil.

Think about these teachings and ask yourself exactly how many of them you personally believe. In fact, put a check mark next to everything you believe and a check mark next to everything your church teaches. Put a third check mark against every item in which your earthly behavior demonstrates such a belief, even if you won't admit it.

While individually the above list might seem offensive to many who call themselves Christians, the collective list becomes completely acceptable to the Christian who says, "Jesus forgives me of all my sins. Ergo, my sins no longer matter to God." Isn't that the orthodox message of Christianity in many factions today? Can't you help yourself? Isn't that why God came down in the flesh and died on the cross? Hello.

What is wrong with such spiritual ignorance is Jesus' astonishing 50% factor cited in Matthew 25 when combined with the selection process also cited in the same chapter. Something terrible is happening in the U.S. culture because half of the country no longer sees an eternal consequence connected to their earthly actions.

Same thing with Christians: half of them think there are no eternal consequences to their earthly actions--after they "Mouth" Jesus as their Lord. I've already taught you why this salvation ²⁵ doctrine is false. For a moment, consider that we live in a world where "wrong seems right" to many people.

Steve Green captures this present reality with the song lyrics--

"We are called to take his light,
To a world where wrong seems right!"

Just look at news headlines on any day. If you know your Bible and U.S. history, you'll recognize that in society--everything seems upside down today. Indeed, today, wrong seems right in biblical and historical terms. One recent headline read, "Banned from Showing Students. ²⁶ the Declaration of Independence." If you think that this means a fifth-grade history teacher was told he couldn't show the United States "Declaration of Independence" document to his students, you are exactly right. Students had asked how "under God" came into the Pledge.

To answer the question, the teacher brought in several documents of the Founding Fathers. Of course, one parent "violently" protested the mixing of Church and State at school. Has the "silent" majority succumbed to the idiocy of the "violent" minority? Why is it wrong to teach U.S. history as it happened with the documents of our founders? And why is it right to teach Darwin's evolution in science as it is factual instead of just a theory?

The only reasonable answer is that we live in a world where "wrong is right." Another headline read, "Attorney Hopes Texas Court Will Uphold Pastor's Rights."²⁷ Unbelievably, a Texas pastor is being sued for "following biblical mandates in administering church discipline." If you don't think that the Church is under assault from within and without, you are a very naïve person. I've taught earlier that it is against criminal law in Canada to speak out against homosexuality. That includes reciting in public Bible verses that condemn homosexuality. Now, a pastor is being sued for following biblical instructions in his church. Everything is upside down, and wrong is right in too many cases. Satan has a "violent" minority that seeks to impose his evil will on the "silent" moral majority of God.

Another headline reads, "Pelosi: Marriage Amendment Discriminates Against Gays."²⁸ House Democrat Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi said, "The proposed constitutional amendment limiting marriage to heterosexual couples would be 'an act of discrimination' against gays."

So what! The U.S. Constitution discriminates against many other people, too. Those younger than 25 cannot run for the U.S. House. Those younger than 30 cannot run for the U.S. Senate. Those younger than 35 cannot run for U.S. President. Isn't that also discrimination? And exactly what is wrong with being a little discriminating in our judgment?

Don't we also morally discriminate against murderers with laws saying you can't murder? The opposite of discrimination is anarchy, where values have no meaning. Yet isn't that where our society now finds itself? And isn't our language now systematically perverted to support evil in an Orwellian double-speak? So how exactly is enforcing the Bible's laws and moral code picking on people? If you've got an answer, let me know.

Nobody forces people to live in a moral society. Certainly, there are immoral places for those who want to live in an environment of anarchy. Are not the immoral minorities of Satan violently corrupting and taking over our once moral society?

Another headline read, "Methodist Jury Convicts Lesbian Minister." ²⁹ A jury made up of United Methodist Church clergy convicted the Rev. Irene Elizabeth Stroud of violating church law by openly living with her female partner in a committed lesbian relationship.

"Stroud's defense counsel, the Rev. J. Dennis Williams, said in closing arguments that "the heart of the issue is whether all United Methodists, regardless of status, are to be afforded equal rights and equal opportunities." Hello. What's wrong with this argument? These people believe that the church should also be non-discriminating. If so, why not ordain murderers and rapists? Facetious, you say? Why? Yes, it is, but the simple-minded idea that the Christian Church should not be a discriminating Church that imposes biblical moral standards is just another statement of anarchy. Why should we not discriminate and refuse to accept what God thinks is abominable? We live in an upside-down world where what was commonly understood as morally wrong is now taught as okay or right. A violent lesbian sets up a moral conflict by playing innocent, building up a sympathetic church following, and then "coming out" on her unsuspecting congregation. Stroud herself, having first built church friendships, imposes spiritual violence on her congregation, which is forced to "understand" her.

It is all a spiritual fraud designed to violently alter our morals. Perhaps capping off the upside-down nature of our country is the school principal ³⁰, who was recently admonished and had to apologize for reading a simple poem over the intercom. Of course, and once again, one or more "violent" parents objected on the basis of Church-State separation. Yet the simple poem he read expresses quite eloquently that "wrong is now considered right."

With close to 332 million people in the U.S., there are now "verbally violent" minorities in abundance seeking to eliminate morals in every area of society. They are ready to challenge anything they don't like when it comes to biblical morality. What is needed is for the "silent majority" to start also getting "verbally violent" and take back our biblical morals by spiritual strength. That is what our founders did. They took over this country by the force of their spiritual strength!

"The principal of a Georgia high school apologized to parents and students for reading 'The New School Prayer' over the intercom. Tommy Craft, principal of Cedar Shoals High School in Athens, GA, was forced to apologize after fielding complaints about the prayer, which he read the Tuesday before Thanksgiving break, the Associated Press reported." This poem has been online for years.

The last two lines are a prayer? Why should anyone have to apologize for reading this aloud to students?

The New School Prayer ³¹

Now I sit me down in school
Where praying is against the rule.
For this great nation under God
Finds mention of HIM very odd.

If Scripture now the class recites,
It violates the Bill of Rights.
And anytime my head I bow
Becomes a federal matter now.

Our hair can be purple, orange or green,
That's no offense; it's a freedom scene.
The law is specific; the law is precise.
Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.

For praying in a public hall
Might offend someone with no faith at all.
In silence alone we must meditate,
God's name is prohibited by the state.

We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks,
And pierce our noses, tongues, and cheeks.
They've outlawed guns, but FIRST the Bible.
To quote the Good Book makes me liable.

We can elect a pregnant Senior Queen,
And the 'unwed daddy' our Senior King.
It's 'inappropriate' to teach right from wrong,
We're taught that such 'judgments' do not belong.

We can get our condoms and birth control,
Study witchcraft, vampires and totem poles.
But the Ten Commandments are not allowed,
No word of God must reach this crowd.

It's scary here, I must confess,
When chaos reigns, the school is a mess.
So, LORD, this silent plea I make:
Should I be shot, my soul, please take!

Amen.

About The Author

Edward G. Palmer

In May 1978, at age 32, I had an epiphany, and in an instant, I was filled with God's Spirit. I have walked with God for 48 years. For the first twelve years, I absorbed Scripture. I learned to love God's Word in the Bible more than a famous pastor's motivational sermons. By 1990, I began to have metaphysical experiences with God. After ignoring God's direction to attend a local Assembly of God church for two years, I relented in 1992. When I asked, God told me it was to observe.

This church went from 600 members to 150 due to the pastor's illegal sexual relations with three women. He was counseling these women and told them to avoid sex with their husbands. At the same time, he had sexual relations with them. Shortly after I started attending, a new senior pastor came to the church. This one also had an agenda and stole the church from its denomination first and then from its voting members.

God had sent me to a cult for four years. With my corporate and legal background, I witnessed how the new pastor illegally altered the non-profit corporation's articles and bylaws to steal the church. He was unrepentant when I confronted him about his corrupt teachings and theft. I left with three other members in late 1996, and we started our ministry. For five years, until 2000, God's Spirit deprogrammed us with words from His Holy Bible.

For the next five years, God gave me the task of writing the Book of Edward: Christian Mythology to explain who Jesus was talking about in Matthew 7:21-23.

Since then, God has given me several other books to discuss different subjects and aspects of HIS Holy Word. A list of related writings follows. I was ordained in 2000, and we formalized our ministry as Apostle Ministry, Inc. in Minnesota. It became an apostolic writing ministry.

I write for God to help educate the Church and Christians to stop their end-times mythology and obey God's commandments and the teachings of Jesus. This book is the next in my series of writings for God. Edward

A Real Salvation Prayer

OPENING PRAYER: FATHER God, let everyone who utters this prayer of salvation unto YOU, with a sincere heart, immediately feel the presence of YOUR Holy Spirit and equip them with the internal strength of conviction to stand tall for YOUR righteousness at all costs and even unto their human death. Verily I say unto YOU that this is YOUR expectation of their [and my] sincere heart. Edward

INSTRUCTIONS: Pray out loud and offer up to God ALMIGHTY outstretched arms and the following prayer, on your knees, in the privacy of your prayer closet [private room, alone], and with your sincere heart. Verily I say unto you that your soul will see eternal life in heaven upon the death of your earthly body if your heart is honest with God to the point that your behavior turns to HIS righteousness. Mark down the time, date, and place of this gift of your heart unto God, and feel free to share this moment when you committed to walking in God's ways with HIS priorities over your life.

PRAY Heavenly FATHER, the only ONE and True God. YOU, who are also the FATHER and the only ONE and True God of my brother Jesus Christ, whom YOU sent down as a living human sacrifice for the sins of all the humans in this earthly realm and world, hear this prayer from my sincere heart. This prayer comes from within the bowels of my spirit soul, and I fully understand that this is a one-way decision of my committed heart.

FATHER, I believe in YOUR only human begotten Son, Jesus Christ. I believe that YOU sent Christ down to this earth and that he became the human being Jesus Christ [Yashua] in the flesh, just like the flesh I have. I believe he had bones like I do, flesh like I do, and blood like I do. I believe that his body on the cross was no different from any other human body. I acknowledge Jesus Christ is the Son of God; he is not God.

FATHER, I believe he only spoke what YOU told him to say and did what YOU told him to do. I believe that he was the final and perfect blood sacrifice for the forgiveness of the sins of humanity. FATHER, I believe that includes my sins.

LORD, I fully acknowledge that by accepting Jesus Christ as my savior and brother, I am inviting his perfect spirit into my life to share this earthly body with me. Along with his spirit, I understand that YOU will also give me YOUR Holy Spirit and that YOU also will dwell within me.

I believe that the result of my sincere acceptance of this gift of YOUR Son is the Oneness I will share with YOU and him. Christ has taught me that I might live in perfect Oneness, Peace, and Joy with YOU and him. O LORD, this is genuinely the sincere desire of my heart. I no longer want to be spiritually alone.

Therefore, I accept the precious gift of YOUR Son, Jesus Christ, and I repent of my past sins and sincerely regret every thought, action, behavior, or anything that was displeasing unto YOU. I understand that with the precious gift of YOUR Son, YOU expect me to live a righteous life for the rest of my days on this earth.

Such a life entails living up to YOUR expectations and obeying what YOU and YOUR Son taught us in Holy Scripture. LORD, I acknowledge that I cannot be perfect in and of myself. I realize that to be like Christ requires that I "practice righteousness" and avoid sin to the best of my ability. I acknowledge that to continue willfully to sin is an implicit rejection of the gift of Jesus.

I also acknowledge FATHER that there will be unintentional and unknown sins that will come in my life. I understand that YOU and Christ will cover those types of sin and serve as a guide to keep me on the narrow path to heaven.

FATHER, I acknowledge that YOUR Son is not a free pass on sins like many Christians believe. Therefore, when I realize I have sinned against YOU in any way, I promise to confess that sin immediately and to keep a short list of my missteps with YOU. I know YOU are faithful to forgive under such conditions, but I also realize that if any life is filled with such confessions, it will be a testimony of an insincere heart. I recognize YOUR instructions in Ezekiel 18 and that Jesus has not altered YOUR criteria for punishing sinners. Therefore, keep me under YOUR wings, O God, and give me a pure heart unto YOU.

Having said this, FATHER, I pray that you will dwell within me and help me be the man [or woman] you want me to be. I ask all this in the name of Jesus Christ, whom I confess with my mouth that he came in the flesh as YOUR only begotten Son. I acknowledge with my heart that YOU expect righteousness, a new life with changed behavior that glorifies YOU.

FATHER, help me to be an instrument of YOUR will even as Christ was such an instrument. Let this day be the first day of the rest of my life, and help me to put away all offensive behavior and sin, which YOU hate. I pray in the name of YOUR only begotten and beloved human Son, Jesus. AMEN

God And Eternal Life

The Church Doctrine Is Unbiblical

Unbiblical (adjective): Describes a belief, teaching, practice, or claim that is not supported by, or directly contradicts, the content and teachings of the Bible. The term is typically used in theological or religious debate to criticize a position as having no scriptural basis or as conflicting with what the Bible actually says.

Unbiblical describes the Church Eternal Life Doctrine, as it is man-made. Read this book and let Scripture and Jesus' teachings speak to your heart. It's time for Christians to choose Scripture over Church Doctrine.
